

Notice to California Residents

This Notice to California Residents (“Notice”), in conjunction with the Privacy Policy above, describes how we collect, use, and disclose personal information of California residents within the scope of the California Consumer Privacy Act, as amended by the California Privacy Rights Act, and its implementing regulations (“CCPA”), as well as your rights in connection with this information. Your continued use of the Channels means that you accept the activities described in this Notice and the Privacy Policy.

The table below describes the personal information we collect, why we collect it, the categories third parties we share it with, and our purposes for sharing it. As shown below, our use of third-party cookies qualifies as “selling” and “sharing” personal information, as those terms are defined by the CCPA. We will only retain your personal information for as long as necessary to achieve the purposes stated below, or for other permitted purposes (such as to comply with any legal obligations). Specific retention periods vary based on our business and legal needs and obligations. The details of the table that apply to your personal information can vary depending on the Channels through which you interact with us. Please visit GE HealthCare Privacy Policy to access our full Privacy Policy and additional information regarding your personal information and privacy.

Your Rights

Subject to any applicable exceptions, the CCPA affords California consumers the rights listed below. California consumers (or their authorized agents) may submit personal information requests via our CCPA Request Form, email to gehc.privacy@gehealthcare.com, (please indicate "CCPA Request" in the subject line and describe the request in the body), or phone at 833-248-6821.

When you submit a request to Know, Delete, or Correct, we will ask for additional information to verify your identity. If you submit a request through an authorized agent, we may take steps to verify the agent's identity and confirm the agent's authority to act on your behalf, including requesting evidence of a power of attorney or other valid, written authority. We will not discriminate against you for exercising your personal information rights.

- Right to Know More Information. You may have the right to confirm details about the personal information we have collected about you, including the categories collected, sources, the types of third parties to whom it was disclosed, sold, or shared, and our purposes for doing so. You also may have the right to request specific pieces of personal information; please note that we will take additional steps to verify your identity before fulfilling such a request.
- Right to Delete Personal Information. You may be entitled to have us delete personal information that we collected from you, although we may be required or permitted to retain personal information in specific instances, in which case we will inform you of our reason for not deleting personal information.
- Right to Correct Inaccurate Information. You may request that we correct information that we hold about you.
- Right to Opt Out of Sales or Sharing. You may be entitled to opt out of sales and sharing of your personal information, either via the information offered above, or Do Not Sell or Share My Personal Information.
